Marion Souders, 79, Golden Sunset Seniors Prepare for Meeting; Passes May 4 Accept Gift of Organ

Marion J. Souders, 79, a lifelong Kendrick area resident, died of can-Saturday, May 4.

He had been ill since 1995.

Marion was born Aug. 11, 1916, at Crescent, Idaho, to Frank and Grace Souders. He attended school inthe Crescent and Southwick area. He married Eileen Garner at Lewiston December 19, 1945. She died in 1988.

He worked as a logger for most of his life. He was a school bus driver and bus mechanic for the Kendrick School District from 1972 until his retirement. He lived his entire life in the Southwick and Kendrick area.

His hobbies included fishing, hunting, camping and other outdoor activities.

Survivors include two daughters Dianna Wallinder of Airway Heights, Wash., and Sandra Dorendorf of Pollock Pines, Calif.; two sons, Miles Souders of Kendrick and James Souders of Lewiston; a brother, Burton Souders of Lewiston; and seven grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Tuesday at Malcom's Brower-Wann graveside serivce followed at the week. Because meal sites cannot own Southwick Cemetery.
