Memories of Erma and Odie

By Mary Cook Loomis The community lost two great ladies this past year. Erma Lohman Big Bear Ridge News Closed Fire SEASON Campbell and Odie Draper. The first Memorial Day after they are gone brings back many memories. I remember Erma and I were ent were Karen and Gary Eggers of Sunday School 9:30 am first off the school buses and into the ladies room at Kendrick High. She was rubbinb her arms and said she was still cold from night-like you lay there half between sleep and ted their 25th wedding anniversary awake, and are too lazy to get up with dinner in Lewiston Saturday for another blanket! We were both evening. from large families and knew some-Church 8:30 am times there wasn't an extra blanket because a brother or sister already of Jerry Galloway.

Erma was an upper classman, pretty and perky and always extre-Sunday School 9:45 am mely well-dressed, and a cheerlead-11 am, 6:00 pm er, but she was friendly to everyone, even us lower classmen. She was always such a hard worker! If you needed decorating for the school carnival or Jr or Senior Prom just ask Erma!! She could get more done than anyone, and oh, how she could 3 All the fast dances were her dance!! All the fast dances were her favorites. She had such a wonderful laugh and zest for life.

Later after graduation she married a boy from the class of '54 at Lewiston High, and so did I. She had twins and so did I. We would meet at class reunions and dances at the 9:45 am Elks. Sometimes we had the best talks in the ladies room!

I got to know Odie better when I had the beauty shop and she was a weekly patron. I began to realize why Erma was so nice was because Odie, her big sister, had helped raise

So Erma, I hope you are where it is warm and you and Odie are having a nice visit amongst the flowers and sunshine. Your former classmates and friends really miss you girls this Memorial Day.
