"Big Enough to Serve You—Small Enough to Know You"

Juliaetta Elementary Students Participated

> The students at Juliaetta Grade School participated in a variety of activities for "Red Ribbon Week". Each day the students were to wear their red ribbon. Surprise visits to the classroom were made and prizes awarded to whoever was wearing their ribbon. Each student also colored a picture on grocery sacks to help get the "drug free" message out into the community. The grocery sacks were then distributed by Phil's Family Foods and the Juliaetta Market. Every other morning a trivia question was asked in the classrooms. The following students were winners from the trivia contest:

First Grade (Mrs. Weyen): Kir-sten May, Brittany Nagle, Erika Peltier, Chris Hammond.

First Grade (Mrs. Meyer): Michelle Agee, Ashley Matchey, Lyndsey Silflow, Annie Osborne. Second Grade (Mrs. Quigley):

Andrew Swartout, Jack Calvert, Mary Gertje, Chase Hadley. Third Grade (Miss Phillips)

Haynes.

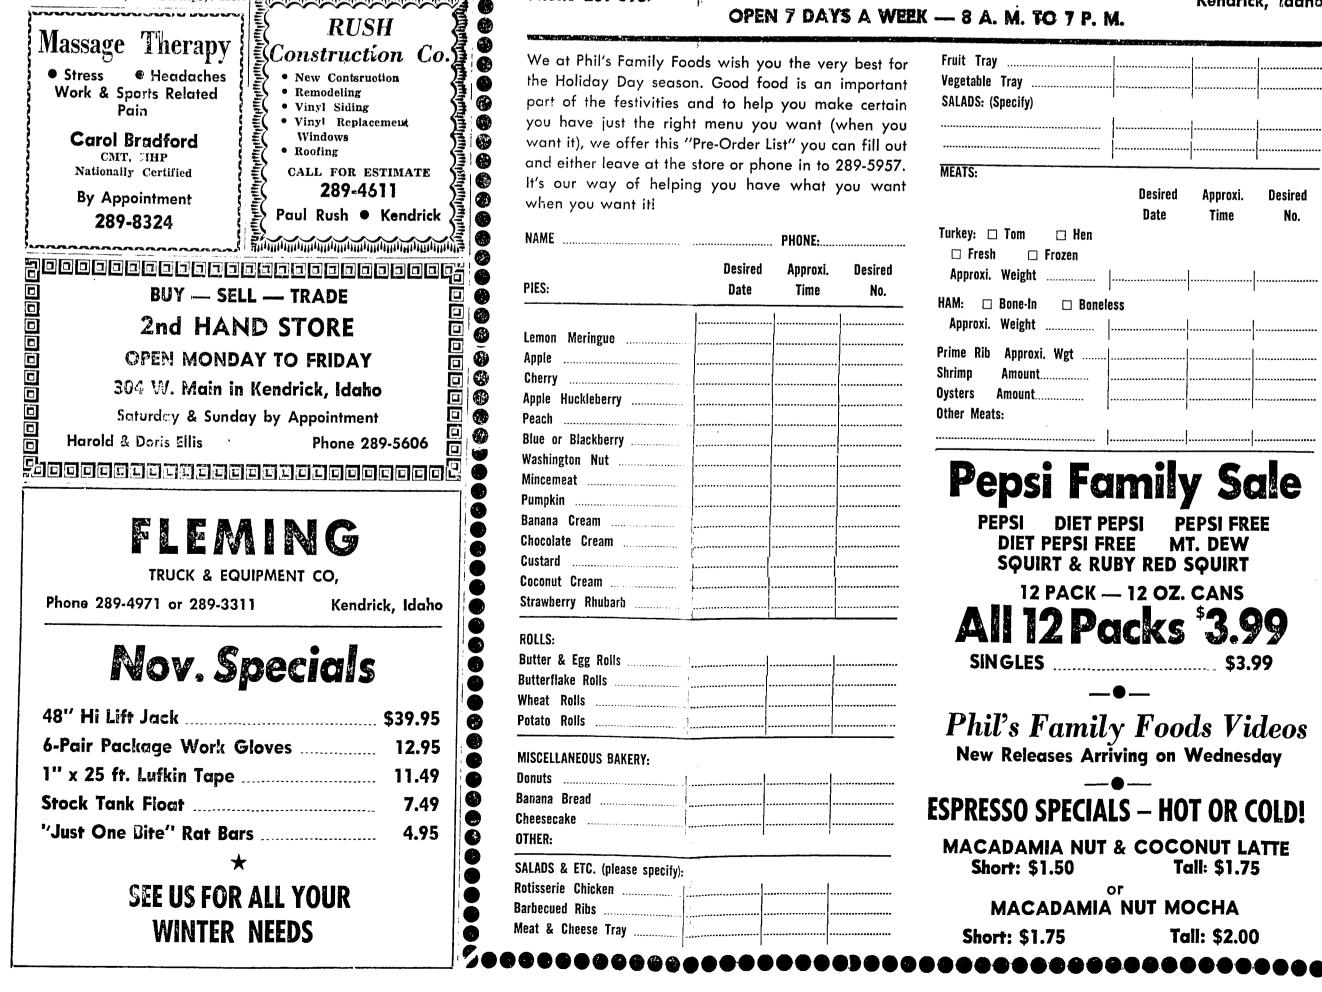

was a balloon release which was Neveda Moore and son Justin, also held during noon recess. Each of the three balloons had a "drug free and healthy lifestyle" message from the classes. This activity was definthe students at J. E. S.

More children's books have been published during the 1990s than in all the previous centuries combined.
