Hill & Valley Garden Club on over-night trip to Field Springs Park

Hill and Valley Garden Club had for its May meeting an over-night stay at WO-HE-LO Lodge at Field Springs Park near Anaton. The program for this meeting was on Wild-flowers and Cindy Henry, wife of one of the rangers conducted three separate trail trips in the park, pointing out the variety of wild flowers native to the area. Tour chairmen Marjorie Wilken and Donna Weyen provided the evening meal on Wednesday and Roseann Holt and Jeanie Ensley made breakfast Thursday morning for the 11 members who made the trip.

During the business meeting at noon it was decided to give three "Good Neighbor Awards" during National Gardening Week, June 1-7. The award which is to show appreciation for work in civic or individual yard beautification goes to Sharon Harris and the Kendrick-Juliaetta Lions Club for their work in the park, to Donna Heinen for providing beautiful bedding and potting plants for the community to purchase and to Floyd and Betty Heimgartner in recognition of their attractive yard.

It was decided not to hold a club meeting in June and so the meeting was concluded with the election of officers to serve for the next two years. They are: Roseann Holt, President; Cindy Henry, Vice President; Jeanie Ensley, Secretary and Patti Sidflow, Treasurer.

The club year ended with a flower show Saturday, May 31, during the Locust Blossom Festival. The Best of Show in the Horticulture Division went to Marjorie Wilken for her free peony and the Best of Show in Design to Kathy Sherwin. The judges rated the show highly and the public seemed to enjoy it, and so the club plans to again make this an annual event.

The club will meet again in September.

Park News

by Joey Smith

Saturday's violent storm did little damage in Park. Just threw a few light weight things around and carved a new ditch or two where culverts under the road couldn't carry the run-off. The road "repairs" on the Park-to-Helmer road have been a real nuisance with long waits and missed mail. No completion date has been announced.

The biggest news in Park is that the Engers have sold their home and bought one in Lewiston. The packing has begun. More information on the new neighbors in a future column. In the meantime the Engers visitors have included Aunt Mae Currier, Lewiston, and her son Aaron, in the area from Los Angeles; Terry and Inez Willenborg, Juliaetta; Wayne and Kathy Doyle and son Brian, Moscow; Vi and Gene Gudmunson and Arnold and Lois Mael, Helmer; Charles and Carol Enger, Don and Jan Mullins, Orofino, and Bob and Myrna Roskam of Lenore.

Jeff and Deanna Schroeder, her sons Layton and Brandon Slaughter and brother Danny Watts, hosted an all-night party Saturday in honor of Deanna's two daughters, Nancy Slaughter who will graduate from Troy High School Saturday and Tammy Slaughter who celebrated her 20th birthday. A very special guest at the party was the young Slaughter's grandmother (Deanna's Mom), Alice San Filippo, who came from Mira Loma, Calif. Danny drove down last week to fetch his mother for an extended visit. Among those attending were about 20 of the girls' friends, and Jerry and Jody Smith, all of whom helped polish off mountains of fried chicken, salad, and bonfire fare. Danny lighted up the celebration with an assortment of fireworks and Deanna presented each of the girls with a home-baked and hand-decorated cake.

Yams tend to be more moist, sweeter and more orange colored than sweet potatoes.

The largest number of costumes used for any one film was 32,000 for the 1951 film Quo Vadis.

daughter Kelli and husband Ty Plowman of Boise joined them staying until Wednesday. Elmer and Thelma returned home on Thursday.

Clem and Flo Lyons attended the Locust Blossom Festival Saturday. Jeannie Ennsley joined other members of the garden club at Fields Spring State Park where they studied wild flowers Wednesday and Thursday.

Annual memorial service at Bethany Church

(Delayed from Last Week)

Approximately seventy persons gathered at the historic Bethany Memorial Chapel on Big Bear Ridge near Kendrick on May 26 for the annual Memorial Day Service and potluck. Each year on Memorial Day pioneer families and guests gather to remember and honor the Veterans, family and friends who are buried in the cemetery surrounding the Chapel.

President and organizer of the Bethany Memorial Association, Stan Cox, was in charge of this year's gathering. The flag bearers, Frank Dammarell and Bob Rollins of Baker-Lind Post 3913, Veterans of Foreign Wars, wore their military uniforms as they led the congregation in the flag salute and pledge. Mr. Cox gave some background information on the historic chapel and retired United States Army Chaplain John Blom gave the Memorial Day message. Congregation songs included, "God Bless America," and "Amazing Grace". The antique pump organ, played by Betty Chisholm of Lewiston, added to other musical arrangements by Mrs. Chisholm, Margarette, Donney, and Kristen Cox and Warren Baab, all of Deary. Clarence Johnson from Moscow, shared two musical number on his accordion. Mr. Johnson has been playing the accordion for over 50 years and has become a most requested guest at the Memorial Day services.

Also in attendance were eight members from Baker-Lind Post 3913, and eight members of the auxiliary including president Lee Halseth. Their participation and presence added to the patriotic theme intertwined with Rev. Blom's message entitled, "Lest We Forget".

A potluck lunch followed the services with informal musical groups entertaining inside the chapel as well as outside in the church yard.

A special thanks from all Association members to Stan Cox who has turned over his leadership to Orville Halseth, new president of the Bethany Memorial Association and to Ron Jones, who will organize future gatherings at the Bethany Chapel. As one member stated, "Stan has worked diligently and successfully to give present and future generations a piece of American heritage."
