Last Tuesday Jerry Galloway with friends helped Ellen Magnuson celebrate her "young" birthday!

A week ago Saturday Jerry Galloway attended a catfish fry at the home of Greg Crouch in Kendrick. Michael Culpepper prepared the meal.

Saturday Charles Bower and Dortha Headrick went to Newport, Wa. to attend the high school graduation of Dortha's granddaughter, Judy and Linda Headrick of Kendrick are Dortha's daughters.

Rose Ann Holt attended the Deary High School graduation Saturday morning. Her grandson Henry Holt was one of the graduates. Following the commencement Rose Ann joined the family for dinner and visiting at the Steve Holt home.

Mike Holt was among those attending the Cuddy cousins gathering at the home of Leonard and Virginia Cole in Lewiston Saturday.

Last Tuesday Rose Ann visited Viola Holt and John Cuddy at St. Joseph Regional Medical Center.

Spring field work was completed at Helmer Monday. Now fencing and other postponed chores can be caught up.

Jeff Schroeder accompanied Jody Smith to Lewiston on the Tuesday trek to help with the heavy work. Visiting the Smith place Thursday evening were Brian and Nan Robertson of Deary and their parents who were in the area to help the family's celebration of young Matt Robertson's graduation from Deary High School. Paul Kirk served as guide for the group.

Jake Beyer of Bovill shared farm chores with the Smiths on Friday. Jody attended the DHS graduation ceremony Saturday and filled the afternoon with calls at three different receptions given in honor of several of the grads. Monday evening she attended a meeting of the M&M's women's group at the Deary Community Church.

Clinton and Ethel Smith made several trips to Moscow this week and their daughter and her friend Lisa Stoltz, who is in the area for Leah's upcoming wedding returned to visit Sunday.

When a group of Mormons moved to the shores of Utah's Great Salt Lake in 1847, it was one of the most well-organized migrations ever. The Mormons, led by Brigham Young, made it through the desert and laid out Salt Lake City in a remarkably short time. They also fenced fields and built irrigation ditches.
