Kelly and Robin Brocke Are Now Thirteen

Kelly and Robin Brocke celebrated their 13th birthdays July 31 while they were at Kids' Camp-97 at Camp Three Meadows near Dworshak State Park. The camp was sponsored through Faith Tabernacle Church in Lewiston.

Joyce Brocke drove out to the camp on the twins' birthday to get them to come home and open gifts and go to Moscow for a two-hour visit with Priscilla Noble.

W. Gene Brocke spent the weekend at the wedding of Rick Fuller at St. Marie's. The Fullers are former Kendrick residents. Gene also went on a short trip to Montana with the Fuller family.

While the twins were away at camp the family's momma kitty brought four kittens from their hiding place. There are two Siamese and two Russian Blue (the females are Russian Blues and the Siamese are blue point males).

Friday Joyce Brocke dropped the twins, Robin and Kelly, off in Moscow for a weekend visit with Priscilla Noble.

Joyce Brocke went to her neurologist Friday afternoon in Moscow for follow-up concerning the bullet lodged inoperably in her frontal lobe. The bullet has been lodged there since July of 1980 when Joyce was attacked by a young cocaine addict in Tacoma, Wash.

Also over the weekend the Brocke cats attacked and killed a bat that had entered the house. The cats kill one or two such bats annually along with numerous warehouse and field mice.

The Brocke's have a newer grey striped kitten found in the warehouse. The mother was a wild kitty. That brings their total cat population to five cats and 5 kittens.

Park News

By Jody Smith

Hay continues to roll in as the weather stays hot and dry. Most Park folks have been so busy with summer work that they haven't done much extra.

An exception was Clinton and Ethel Smith and Jerry and Jody Smith and Scott as they took Saturday afternoon off to attend a party in Clarkston.

Clinton's brother-in-law and sister, Willie and Bea Reed were honored on their 50th wedding anniversary at a reception and buffet dinner at the Moose Hall. All of their five children, all but one of their spouses and most of their grandchildren were able to attend as well as Bea and Clinton's other brother and sister-in-law, Stan and Eleanor Smith of Lewiston.

After the reception, the Park Smiths visited Kay and Doug Stout and sons Nathan and Nicholas at Lewiston.

Jody Smith enjoyed lunch Thursday at Moscow's new restaurant as a guest of Lynn Rains of Deary. The afternoon was cut short as the two ladies joined many others in support of the Red Cross at their blood drive in Deary in the afternoon.

Visiting at the Jerry Smiths this week were Jeff Schroeder, Mark LaBolle, Jake Beyer, Clinton Smith and Vickie Rice and her two daughters of Juliaetta.
