Tigers Outscore Troy 34-20 in Opener; at Highland Saturday

Kendrick endured a 48-0 drubbing at the hands of the Troy Trojans last year—but that was last year. Friday night the Tigers went up to Troy and came home with a 34-20 victory in their first game of the season. While both teams showed evidence of first game jitters, it was Tigers who showed improvement over 1996's young, inexperienced team.

Morgan LeBlanc, Troy's strong running back, put the Trojans on the board early in the first quarter with a 20-yard run. That lead didn't hold up as Kendrick's Tony Cappa picked up the return kick and rambled 85-yards to tie the score at 6-6. The Tigers never trailed after that.

Kendrick scored the only points in the second period on Richie Hitchcock's 9-yard pass to Brian Carter and the Tigers led 12-6 at half time.

Kendrick held the Trojans scoreless in the third quarter but racked up 14 points of their own on Eric McDowell's fumble recovery and Brian Carter's 4-yard run. Hitchcock passed to Tony Howerton for the extra points.

The Hitchcock to Howerton combination clicked again, this time for a touchdown in the final quarter, on a pass play covering 26 yards.

Troy scored twice after that KHS touchdown but the Tigers' margin held.

At Highland Saturday

Coach Driskill takes his team to Craigmont Saturday, Sept. 6 for a game that starts at 12 noon. Kendrick will debut before the home fans Sept. 12 when they host their visiting Genesee Bulldogs.

Letters to the Editor . . .

Editor:

At the 7th grade orientation we parents learned there would be no lockers available for the incoming seventh grade students which disturbed some of the parents. Some were clearly upset!

I understand the present lockers are well over thirty years old and some are in very poor condition.

The school needs new hall lockers to protect the books we the taxpayers buy as well as the expensive gym bags, shoes, and other school supplies that parents buy—not to mention winter coats, rain gear, umbrellas and other necessities of school life.

Having a locker, even with a locker partner, is almost a rite of passage for our junior/senior high school students.

Mr. Partee says new lockers are expensive—the existing lockers are dinosaurs as far as lockers are concerned.

Security would be better if smaller stack lockers were used with locks built in which the school can open with a master key for searches. In many day they searcher lockers regularly for bombs during the Vietnam war; overdue library books, moldy sack lunches (a health threat) weapons—now they search for drugs and other things.

New lockers with new built-in locks are very needed and long overdue for our high school and if we had the new kind with one locker atop the other, basically we'd have twice as many lockers as we currently have now—a locker for everyone—even staff members, and enough lockers to accommodate the growth of the student population.

I think the school is voter shy, afraid to ask for their total needs. We need lockers.

The school needs to order and install new lockers and if funds are needed, they need to add this to the next maintenance levy. After all, lockers ought to last at least twenty years or so. We need these lockers, new school coats costs a lot of money and books cost a lot, too.

Thank You for the Surprise Birthday Party

Surprised? And I was! I wish to thank my friends and family who came to help me celebrate my 102nd birthday. I thank my granddaughter, Lori Ann Wilson, who organized the surprise birthday party for me Saturday evening. I also wish to give a special thanks to those who helped her with all the hours of preparation. I thank my entire family for making my 102nd birthday one to remember. I really liked the Old Time Fiddlers music and I was proud of my great-grandson, Lonnie Wilson, who played two selections on his fiddle.

August—Hot and Dry

The month of August is usually hot and dry, so farmers can get on with harvesting operation. August of 1997 was just that as the harvest is rapidly coming to a close with little delay. Frank Dammarell, who records the rainfall and temperatures at his ranch on the SW section of Big Bear Ridge reported a half-inch of rain in the 31 days of the month. All the moisture fell in one day, but in two separate storms, both on the 24th.

The high temperatures of 98 degrees were recorded on the 3rd and again on the 20th.

In August of 1996, Frank recored a scant 0.2 of an inch, also recored twice.

There was a reported low of 48 in August of this year and a low of 42 degrees last year.

Last year's high was 104 degrees and 10 times the mercury went over the 100 degrees mark, "so really we didn't do too bad this year," Frank said.

Here's How to Deal With Unwanted Phone Marketing Calls, Faxes

By The Federal Communications Commission

Tired of receiving unwanted and unsolicited telephone marketing calls—which always seem to come at dinner time—or unsolicited advertising on your fax machine?

The Federal Communications Commission has now published a brochure telling consumers about their rights under the Telephone Consumer Protection Act (TCPA) and the FCC's rules.

The free brochure also tells consumers about actions that they can take to reduce the number of unsolicited telephone marketing calls and unsolicited advertisements sent to their fax machines.

Under the FCC's "Do-Not-Call" rules, a person or entity (a business for example) placing live telephone solicitation calls to your home must maintain a record of your request not to receive future telephone solicitations from them. Your request must be honored for 10 years.

Tax-exempt non-profit organizations are not required to keep Do-Not-Call lists. The FCC's Do-Not-Call rules also do not apply to calls placed to business telephone numbers. Your state, however, may have laws that require a business "Do-Not-Call list."

The brochure also takes the mystery out of how and why consumers with unlisted, non-listed-listed or non-published numbers still get unsolicited phone calls. Also explained are the hours solicitation calls can be made to your home, caller identification requirements, restrictions on computerized calls, and the types of permitted calls.

The FCC's rules also prohibit sending unsolicited advertising to fax machines. The brochure explains consumers' rights and what is required of the person or entity sending fax messages.

If you believe you have received unsolicited calls or unsolicited fax advertisements in violation of the TCPA and the FCC's rules, the brochure provides details about actions you can take, such as filing suit in state court or writing a letter to the FCC.

The brochure also directs consumers to resources other than the FCC. Complaints about false or deceptive telephone solicitations sales practices, for example, should be directed to the Federal Trade Commission.

Complaints about fraudulent calls should be directed to the FBI. The U. S. Postal service should be contacted about information or products received by mail in connection with fraudulent telephone solicitations practices.

The FCC brochure also tells consumers how they can get their names added to lists of consumers who do not wish to receive telephone marketing calls. These lists are prepared and distributed by the Telephone Preference Service can be reached by mail at:

Telephone Preference Service
Direct Marketing Association
P. O. Box 9014
Farmington, NY 11735

Consumers can get a free copy of the brochure by calling the FCC's toll-free National Call Center at 1-888-225-5322 or TTY 1-888-835-5322. Consumers can also request a copy of the brochure by writing to the FCC's Public Service Division at the address below:

FCC Office of Public Affairs,

TIGER BOOSTERS TO MEET AFTER GENESSEE GAME SEPT. 12

The KHS Tiger Athletic Boosters will meet Friday, Sept. 12 at the high school cafeteria immediately following the Kendrick - Genesee football game. This will also be the annual election of officers for the club and a good turn-out is requested.

L. W. Heimgartner, Retired Farmer, Passes August 30

The funeral for Lawrence William Heimgartner, 83, a retired Juliaetta-Kendrick farmer, will be at 11:00 a. m. Friday, Sept. 5, at Malcom's Brower-Wann Memorial Chapel in Lewiston. The Rev. Mark Fischer of the Juliaetta Community Church will officiate and burial will follow at the Fix Ridge Cemetery near Juliaetta.

Lawrence died of pneumonia on Monday at the Royal Plaza Care Center in Lewiston.

The son of Robert and Bessie Hoisington Heimgartner, he was born July 8, 1914, at Fix Ridge. He graduated from Juliaetta High School in 1932 and was valedictorian of his class.

He married Nellie Marie Fey Feb. 15, 1939, a Lewiston. The couple farmed on Fix Ridge and Potlatch Ridge until moving to American Ridge in the spring of 1949. They retired from farming and moved to Juliaetta in 1982.

He attended the Juliaetta Community Church and was a member of the Kendrick, Pomona, state and National Grange. He was a past master of the Kendrick Grange. He also belonged to the Dick's Creek Cattlemen's Association.

He enjoyed baseball, his farm animals and hunting and fishing. His family and farm were very important to him.

He is survived by his wife at the family home in Juliaetta; two daughters, Janice Merlene Groseclose of Juliaetta and Joanne Rae Johnson of Lewiston; a son, Ray Heimgartner of Juliaetta; two brothers, Roy and Wayne Heimgartner, both of Juliaetta; three sisters, Lillie McCall and LaVerne Harri, both of Clarkston, and Betty Surbaugh of Othello, Wash.; seven grandchildren; and 13 great-grandchildren.

Three brothers, Leslie, Everett and Elmer, died previously.

Arlie and Priscilla Armitage attended the 40th anniversary reception for Dale and Liliane Peavey Saturday in Clarkston.

Monday the Armitages and Jack and Betty Mustoe went to visit Jack and Molly Benscoter south of Pullman. They toured the Staley Mansion and also stopped by to visit Bob and Diane Dupea in Moscow.

Dave Armitage of Kennewick and Doug Armitage of Lewiston were Sunday evening visitors of Arlie and Priscilla.

Juanita Reece called on Jack and Betty Mustoe Saturday evening. Sunday evening guests were Orville and Barbara Halseth of Big Bear Ridge, Arlie and Priscilla Armitage and Juanita Reece.

Last Friday afternoon visitors of Jean Wegner were Jack and Sandy Mabbott of Medical Lake and Ula Cantril. Polly Koopp was a Sunday morning visitor of Jean.

Judy White returned home Tuesday from Caldwell. She attended the wedding of her nephew, Andy Lovett of Nessa, Oregon.

Bud Adamson, Tom, Jake and Ben Marek and Ron Adamson all went on a horse packing rip up the Lochsa recently.

Shawna Burger and sons Kyle, Kevin and Keith of Puyallup, Wash. visited with Glen, Melissa and Tia Pierce at the end of August. While here the two oldest boys enjoyed watching the combines cut grain and going to the beach. The family enjoyed country living and hope to return for another visit.

Sunday Frances Peters and Darlene Nye of Lewiston attended the three class reunion of the classes of '58, '59 and '60. It was also Sandy Henriksen's birthday. Sandy was a member of the class of 1959.

Sonja and Connie Lohman attended the 38th class reunion Sunday at the Kendrick Fire Hall. It was a time to reflect on the memories of those who had died since graduation.

Thursday Ted and Donna Weyen visited Donna's sister Marian Sanford at Clarkston.

Weekend visitors of Eldon and Toots Glenn were Jean and Marshall Montgomery of Rathdrum. Sunday evening Eldon and Toots and other family members and Mary Van Seikle and girls of Clarkston celebrated Rick Glenn's birthday.

Disposition of Former Railroad Right-of-Way Land is Posing a Problem

In 1890 the Northern Pacific Railroad extended its line down from Moscow and into Kendrick and later to Juliaetta and beyond to link up with Lewiston, serving the area faithfully and well for many years with as many as five runs each day coming and going to provide transportation and freight service. By the 1980s the improved highways and changing times had reduced the number of runs and the type of service to the occasional freight cars that transported mainly grain. Burlington Northern took the place of Northern Pacific, but the railway needs declined and with it the service. Finally the service ceased. The station had closed and in October of 1984, the Interstate Commerce Commission declared the line from Moscow to Arrow abandoned. Though unused at the time, the track and beds of the line suffered severe damage in the floods of early 1996.

Later that year, Burlington Northern put the line from Moscow to Arrow up for sale and it was purchased by A & K Salvage. Despite local efforts to re-establish a working railroad through Troy, Kendrick and Juliaetta, A & K moved to remove the tracks and ties, work that was completed this summer. Now nothing remains except the road bed and this is where the trouble is currently.

With the abandonment of the line, the removal of the rails and ties the problems emerge and questions arise. Now who owns the land? Does A & K Salvage own it? Will the State of Idaho Dept. of Transportation acquire it? Will the original owners see the land returned to them or their heirs? What and how much of the original right-of-way was purchased by Northern Pacific and what parts were just given by an easement for so long as the railroad operated as intended.

A grandson of one of the early settlers who had given Northern Pacific an easement through his land for as long as they gave railway service, now wants the family land back, or at least be given some answers to his questions. Donald (Bud) Eichner, whose grandfather, Claus Eichner, granted an easement through his land in the late 1880s, is one of those now asking questions.

This grandson of the original homesteader wants the land back for at least two reasons. First it was part of the original parcel his family had acquired and farmed since—it's Eichner land. Second there has been talk of converting the old railroad into a trail for bikers, hikers and the public. "It's the last thing we want," Bud said. "It's a hazard and a problem." He went on to wonder who would own the land, who would protect it, who would police it, who would control weeds, etc. what it would cost county taxpayers, providing the county would finally be in charge? The hazards of fire, vandalism and mischief would also increase as greater access to the areas involved was increased.

Eichner is urging interested persons to let their opinions be heard by the state, county and other agencies who may well be involved in future control of the old railway line. The City of Kendrick is also watching the entire proceeding carefully, said Kendrick mayor Jerry Brown as the city has an interest in the property within the city limits. Also keeping an interested eye on the matter is the J-K Recreation District, which knows of the public interest in establishing a walking for biking path between Kendrick and Juliaetta.

Friday Quilt Show Part Of Community Market

Bring your quilts and quilted items to the Kendrick Fire Hall between 7 and 8:30 a. m. this Friday, Sept. 5 for display, judging and customer voting. Then plan to attend the Community Market from 10 to 4, visit with other quilters, watch in-progress quilting, and maybe listen to the Idaho Old Timer Fiddlers play everyone's favorite tunes from 10 to 11:30. You'll probably want to check on the quilt show from 10:30 to 4 in the Fire Hall and finally, pick up your quilted items (possibly a prize, too), from 4 to 5.

Quilting in progress will be shared by Lura's Fabric Shop of Orofino and Country Stitches & More, Genesee, at the "Quilt Salute" during the Community Market.

Quilt Show sponsors include the following: Jo-Ann's Fabric, Clarkston, Red Cross Floral, Kendrick; Sewline and The Flower Cottage, Etc, Lewiston; Lura's Fabric Shop, Orofino; Quilt Something, Moscow; Country Stitches, Genesee; Penny's Moscow; Whitepine Cafe, Troy; First Bank of Pizza, Juliaetta; and Book World and Book People, Moscow.

For more information or to register for the quilt show contact Phyllis Berg, 289-5302 or Cynthia Nye at 276-3121.

Sept. Market Themes—

VENDORS: the themes for the Sept. Community Markets include: Postcard, Sept. 12; and Corn, Sept. 19. If you are able to bring related items to either market, your vendor fee that day will be $3 rather than the usual $5. It is requested that all items be either "tasteful or in good taste." Thank you.

How to Raise A Delinquent

These rules for raising delinquent children is from a publication from the Houston, Texas police department. It was clipped and saved by Laura Adamson, herself a retired school teacher.

1. Begin in infancy to give the child everything he wants. In this way he will grow up to believe the world owes him a living.
2. When he picks up bad words, laugh at him. This will make him think he's cute. It will encourage him to pick up cuter words that will blow off the top of your head, later.
3. Never give him any spiritual training. Wait until he is 21 and let him decide for himself.
4. Avoid the use of the word "wrong." It may develop a guilt complex. This will condition him to believe later on, when he is arrested for stealing a car, that society is against him and he is being persecuted.
5. Pick up everything he leaves lying around—books, clothing. Do everything for him so that he will be experienced in throwing all responsibility on others.
6. Let him read any printed matter that he can get his hands on. Be careful that the silverware and the drinking glasses are sterile, but let his mind feed on garbage.
7. Quarrel frequently in the presence of your child. In this way they will not be shocked when the home is broken up later.
8. Give a child all the spending money he wants. Never let him earn his own. Why should he have things as tough as you had them?
9. Satisfy his every craving for food, drink, and comfort. See that that every sensual desire is gratified. Denial may lead to harmful frustration.
10. Take his part against neighbors, teachers, policemen. They are all prejudiced against your child.
11. When he gets into trouble, apologize to yourself by saying, "I could never do anything with him."
12. Prepare for a life of grief. You will be likely to have it.
13. We propose a 13th rule: Assume that these rules apply to other parents, but not to you.

Curb-Side Recycling in Kendrick each Thursday morning

In cooperation with the City of Kendrick, Dave Dean of Davey's Recycling, will be in Kendrick each Thursday morning to pick up recyclible items if placed at the curbside.

Here is what is being accepted at this time:

- Newsprint
- Magazines
- Cardboard (corrugated & uncorrugated)
- Clear Glass
- Tin Cans
- Aluminum Can
- Plastics No. 1, No. 2 & Milk Jugs

THE FOLLOWING IS SUGGESTED:

- Please don't use plastic bags for recyclibles.
- Please have items out by 7:30 a. m. Thursdays
- It would help if you would rinse all cans and make sure they are empty. You do not have to take the labels off.
- Cardboard must be flattened. It would be very space saving if everything else was also flattened.

Back-To-School Advice for Parents: Be Involved in Your Child's Education

Children and young adults are not the only ones heading back to school this fall. Parents should be close behind, according to the National Education Association (NEA). "A child's success (or failure) in school often depends on the parents, particularly the extent of their involvement in their child's education," says NEA Present Bob Chase. "It's important for parents to become active partners with teachers to help their children learn. That partnership plays a role in the classroom and at home. It is a key to ensuring that all children start school ready to learn, whether it be kindergarten or college."

Research shows that when parents take an active interest in their child's education, the child does better in school. Higher grades, improved attendance, and better behavior are among the positive results.

There are many ways parents can be involved in helping their child succeed in school. Here are a few tips:

Encourage your child to read, and help with reading assignments.

* Read aloud to younger children. Get them to comment and ask questions.

* When your child first learns to read, let him read to you; listen attentively and be sure to praise his efforts.

* Have a discussion with your child about the books she read—whatever her reading level.

* Be a role model—make sure your child sees you reading regularly.

* Involve other family members, especially older children who can read to the younger ones.

Make homework a routine assignment:

* Let your child know studying at home is expected on a regular basis.

* Set aside a specific time and quiet place for studying—or reading—every evening, even when there is no homework assignment. Make sure the study area has appropriate light, a comfortable chair and enough room to spread out materials.

* Check your child's homework to make sure it is accurate, complete, and neat. Encourage your child to find and fix any spelling, grammar, or punctuation errors.

* Discuss the assignment, give your child feedback, and praise his/her efforts.

Talk to your child about what's happening in school:

* Encourage your child to describe what the school day was like, and don't accept "nothing happened" as an answer.

* Ask questions about teachers, your child's friends, favorite subjects, and the new things that he or she learned.

Talk To Your Child's Teacher(s):

* Get know all your child's teachers, and stay in touch with them.

* Ask about your child's strengths and weaknesses.

* Find out what you can do at home to monitor your child's progress and help him/her succeed in school.

Happy Birthday, A. C.
Approximately 200 friends and relatives gathered at the Community Hall Saturday evening for a surprise birthday party for A. C. Wilson who was 102 years old on Saturday, Aug. 30.

Albin Nelson called on A. C. Wilson Saturday morning to wish him a happy birthday.

A. C.'s cousins, Emmett and Eilene Martin, Brad and Jo Martin, all of Lewiston visited with him Saturday afternoon prior to the party. Weekend guests were his niece, LaVonne Wilson Hays of East Wenatchee, Wash.; Frances Steel of Redmond, Wash.; and cousins H. K. and Janet Russell of Bellingham, Wash.

Gilbert Luiz, Hayward, Calif., left Sunday morning for his home after having spent the last three weeks visiting the A. C. Wilson families.

Park News
by Joey Smith

Thelema Stratton and her daughter and son-in-law, Elmira and Donald Gudmunson paid a visit to Jeff Schroeder at the old Stratton place in Park on a recent Sunday.

Deanna Schroeder and her two sons are back in the fall routine as Deanna started her school bus run out of Troy and the boys, Brandon and Leaton Slaughter enrolled at Deary High School, transferring from Troy. Visiting the Schroeders on Labor Day were Jeff's brother, Gary and Ruth Grasser of Moscow. Several parties have been enjoyed by the Smith families over the past two weeks. Jerry and Jody helped Jim Bower celebrate his 90th birthday at the Horn Ranch in Avon, August 24. About 100 attended. Aug. 27, Clinton and Ethel Smith hosted her brother Jerry and Jody for birthday supper, celebrating Jerry's 63rd. The four Smiths went to Big Bear Ridge Community Hall Aug. 30 to join about 200 well-wishers at A. C. Wilson's 102nd birthday party. A Labor Day picnic hosted by aunt Ethel Slatter drew 28 people including the Smiths to Hareth Park in Lewiston.

Jim Smith and daughters Kristin and Alissa of Hayden Lake visited in Park the weekend of the 23 and 24, helping finish up the hay hauling with his dad Jerry's crew. The girls had an overnight visit with uncle Clinton and aunt Ethel while Jim helped his son Scott pack up his duffel for the trip home from his summer-long stay with grandpa and grandma Smith. It's just too bad sweet little fillies don't fit in a suitcase!

On a recent trip to Lewiston Jody and Scott enjoyed a chance "street-side" visit with her sister-in-law, Anna Hunter of Lenore, and a "check-out stand visit" with her
